Forward

This book is my first attempt at writing therefore I ask you to bear with me while I try to distill seeming eons of research concentrated in less than two-hundred pages. During my time researching, I have come of the opinion Meredith Quinn's "The Eagle" is one of the most important works for those who have an interest in history and law. One of his sources of research came from a three-volume set; "Brief History of the English People" by John Richard Green, 1899. Having been shown the methods and procedures employed in the destruction of nations, and people, I combined the works of those two authors with my own research on how the "powers-that-be" have been utilizing certain "tricks" in order to seize the riches of the world for their own and at our expense. The 5 "tricks" come from Edward Gibbons' observations and include; 1. High divorce rate-population reduction. 2. Heavy taxation. 3. Government's embrace of the occult. 4. Entertainment; sports/Olympics. 5. Hidden conspirators.

This book is an exposé on those people who have been born on the same land the Creator has given to us, as our Birthright, and, under the pretext of; "public safety", "public necessity" and "public interest" have taken it upon themselves for personal, self serving, reasons to serve foreign jurisdictions to our and the people of the world's detriment. This is an exposé on deceit in action. However, what one may perceive to be deceit is merely a commercial transaction, or a series of commercial transactions, brought about by certain unknown and unseen investors. Those investors, I contend, are those who own the corporate nation called "VATICAN". VATICAN agents, in CANADA, are part of the wholly Roman commercial activity, known as "religion" with the divers Ministers, within the Government of Canada being ministers in a clerical sense. For example, the Minister of the Attorney General is a minister/priest/rabbi/imam/preacher/etc. lawyer holding rank of General. I contend we are under a clerical military occupation with history being written by such Generals.

It is hoped with the culmination of my research, and the ideas of so many which have been blended into this publication, people may open their eyes and turn their backs on those who have been betraying us, continue to betray us and are planning to deceive us into the snare of the one world concentration of all life into the talons of one.

With that in mind, in reading this book, you may come to as best an understanding why we are slaves and come to further understand we are, in a sense, authors of our own fate.

There are many very good public speakers conducting seminars in areas of personal sovereignty, debt reduction, tax avoidance, healthcare and other such topics geared to the so-called "sovereignty", "de-tax" and "freedom" movements, to name a few, and there are many others who have been conducting their own research and I feel confident those of you who have attended the sessions I have mentioned may find some of the valuable information gleaned from such session will make more sense.

Since it is my book I shall take some space to give special thanks to one (Fred Meyusal) who proved invaluable in the compilation of this book and without whom the first edition would have been years away, and the other, (Besaba Kalime), who donated a much needed apartment without which I would have found myself living on the streets with my trusty Pal Al (the cat).

Through my pleasant tactful disposition and the endless requests I subjected Fred Meyusal to it was through Fred's diligence, perhaps his need to get me off his back that he provided very valuable assistance to me and you, beneficiaries to his unselfish undertakings. Most of the documents attached to this book as a cd of documents come from him not to mention the financial aid he has provided me, in the research and compilation of this book and without question.

Besaba Kalime offered her apartment to me when I had no other place to stay upon my return from Manitoba, January 2010. Without her unselfish offer this book would probably have taken another one or two years to be printed if printed at all.

It is in this vein of helping one another, of team work, which has spawned this work. It is also of the works of other great writers which paints the vivid picture of man's never ending entrapment into slavery we find ourselves in seemingly forever. We can put an end to this if we really want to.

INTRODUCTION

Through my research I have found all roads lead to Rome. Therefore, there is a heavy stress on the POPE, VATICAN and the English Monarchy.

Not since the time of Nimrod has man been on the threshold of worldwide slavery we find ourselves today. There are similarities in regard to the New World Order Nimrod attempted and what its ancestors are about to attempt now. You may recall what happened to Nimrod consequent that attempt. Nimrod was slaughtered and his slaughter is forever remembered by Nimrod's gravity defying penis, also known as the obelisk, which you would be familiar with if you recall the Washington Monument, St. Peter's Square and sundry other obelisk which the cemeteries far and wide. The Toronto Police Service, a standing army, also proudly displays the Babylonian Ba'al salute and, in the main, is a Masonic organization. It is interesting to note, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police once wore brown not unlike Hitler's SA. Now, they wear black not unlike the Waffen S. S. which Henrich Himmler modeled after the Society of Jesus, the "Zeusites". There are parallels in the way the Royal Canadian Mounted Police operate and Himmler's organization.

At the time of Nimrod, there existed one language, the Ancient Hebrew language which much resembles "stickmen", as opposed to the "Jewish-Rabbinical" Hebrew language which is "boxier", coming into vogue in the three hundred years preceding the Masai Yah's birth. As a note, the High Priests of the Israelites were of the Tribe of Levi and not rabbis. During Nimrod's time the Creator intervened causing the people to speak in divers languages so much so a communication breakdown came about thwarting Nimrod's grand plan. People could not understand each other and that is how Nimrod's project failed. Today, we have divers languages being concentrated into one world language, English. We are about to come full circle with the PAPACY who could be classed as today's Nimrod. POPE, in case you are not aware, is a corporation, a company, a "person" at law and, as such, the Creator is not a respecter of "persons" or those with titles. When I make reference to POPE I encourage you to think "corporation" or "commerce". As Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor and her Tribal ancestors are remnants of the Tribe of Judah I shall be relying upon the Scriptures as well Elizabeth's Bible to draw the parallels. I have limited knowledge of other religions but, those of other faiths may find something in their Holy Books which may confirm certain prophecies by the Prophets of their beliefs insofar as what you are about to read.

Delving into the history of the formation of countries is an interesting subject. What is man in relation to country and what is a country in relation to men? What does it mean to be a “Canadian”? Or an “American”? Or an Albanian? What does it mean to be of one country then the country is renamed? What happens to one whom, for example, is born in Yugoslavia before the country of Yugoslavia was deleted from the history books? Yugoslavia is now known as “Kosovo”. Exactly what happens to a man or woman who was considered to be an Yugoslavian but now must call themselves a Kosovoan? What happens in the change? Does the man or woman gain or lose a body part? Does their hair change colour? Teeth fall out? Turn into an Albanian mouse? Exactly what is the difference? You are Canadian? What happens if Canada is changed to “America” would you consider yourself to be an “American” or still a “Canadian”? And if “Canada”, like Yugoslavia for example, were to be dropped from the corporate books would this mean all those who were born during the term of Canada Inc. would die instantly? I thought they were “Canadian” and to become “American” would result in a “rebirth” or “resurrection”? Like passing on and resurrected to hell as an “American”?

Supposing you consider yourself to be a Canadian or a Mexican then, with a concentration brought about for economic reasons, you are no longer known as either, but, as an “American”, in opposition to being a united States of American. In this sense, there has been a concentration of three countries, Mexico, the united States and Canada into one entity known as America, or “Amerounion”. One would suppose the riots will happen in the united States ONLY when the people find out “Ole Glory” is no longer their god. The god they sang to with their hand over their heart at sport events. The flag they pledge their lives for when a flag is a corporate logo good for nothing but flapping in the breeze.

When you read Scripture you find clues on what countries are all about. Scripture speaks of; men, women, children, Tribes, Nations, Kingdoms and Lands while modern men relate themselves to corporations known as “countrymen”. The military involved in Afghanistan must consult with Tribal elders. The never ending uprisings in divers African “Nations” is Tribal in nature and in conflict with the forced scheme of “democracy”, of which, there are as many forms as there are stars in the sky. Many others in the African continent have tribal heritage. Hutu, Tutsi, Bantu, Swazi and others and let us not forget the Indian Tribes of the Americas and, last but not least, the Tribal and Clan structures of the Scotts which prevail to this day and seemingly unaffected by the Tribal concentration into corporate nothingness.

Other than being a Jew or a lawyer, and I am not attempting to equate Jews with lawyers, everyone else is either referred to in a country sense, are assumed to be of a country or on a list for deletion. A Jew is a Jew and not a “Canadian”, “American” etc. just as a lawyer is a Templar of the Inns of Court. A further illustration can be found in the concentration of Labrador with Newfoundland. It is now correct to refer to Newfoundlanders as

Newfoundland and Labrador. So, while one's parents may have been born on Fogo Island, Newfoundland, their children now would be born on Fogo Island, Newfoundland and Labrador. What is this all about?

What I do know is leading up to Chief Aleric's assault on the "wholly" holy Roman Empire in 451 there existed; clans, tribes, elders and ouses. Justice was public and families were accountable to the rest of the family for wrongs done to others by their kin. In order to defeat the Romans there had to be a concentration of communities into regions. There was a leader where the local people could take their grievances. The Law, in the main, was the Laws of the Creator handed down to Moses. The union of those people was what led to the so-called defeat of the Romans and, ultimately, to Elizabeth Windsor, Queen of Judah. Of course, it is easier to bribe and control one head then several of the same land.

Within one hundred years after Alaric, the Holy Roman Empire resurfaced as the "monastic movement" led by Augustine. Augustine was a "freebooter" which you would better know as a "pirate". This somewhat guaranteed religion as being the narcotics of the people, for many centuries, through the fruits of piracy used to establish higher schools of learning. From this point, the concentrations began with incorporations and countries began to sprout everywhere. If you review the maps on the accompanying compact disc (Map Tracks, Track "37"), you can follow the formation of countries through the disappearance of Tribal regions. From the maps of the fourth-century to the twelfth century the Finnish Tribes occupied the northern part of the European continent. You will also note the Saxons, Goths, Visigoths, Osmans, Engles, Chazars and others of which little is known today. Elizabeth Windsor, carrying on the business as figure head for the Imperial Parliament, has a lineage to the Saxons, Goths and Coburgs as well being the second Elizabeth, Queen of Judah. I believe she is not "Jewish". I shall delve deeper into this subject throughout my book.

It appears knowledge of one's Tribal identity is of little or no consequence therefore such knowledge of one's lineage has been ignored by most for hundreds of years so much so we do not know what blood lines we are creating or coming from. There have been many routes taken in the destruction of one's Tribal lineage, which is essential if the plan of concentration of the people and planet is to succeed. Without knowledge of their Tribal lineage, you are assumed to be incorporated, consequently, engaged in commercial activities. What then is a country? If it is a corporation, how does it relate to the men and women living within the geographical land area of the corporation? What are the ramifications of not knowing or rejecting one's Tribal identity? That I do not know. I do know a country is a corporation and to make reference to oneself being of such, a corporation, renders one subject not only to the limited rights, freedoms and privileges as demonstrable in a "free" and democratic society but are, more importantly, saddled with the debts created by corporations inducing the people into the so-called “franchise” known as the “voting scheme”. To “enjoy the franchise” means to be obliged to pay for questionable debt.

This book exposes the steps taken in the destruction of Tribal identity of the Tribes of the North American Continent known as “Turtle Island”. (There are 2 plausible reasons for the North American Continent being called “Turtle Island”. On the one hand, if you view the Aleutian Islands as the left flipper, the Florida and California panhandles as the rear flippers, Central America would be the tail. Alternatively, at the time Mu sank giant sea turtles let the Indians ride their backs to the main land. Mu, Lumeria, is thought to lie off the coast of Oregon.) Although what I have found through the course of my research may apply to all other lands forming the commonwealth of nations of the Imperial Parliament I focus in on how Canada was formed in 1867 and what the profits and the losses were, consequent to this “great experiment”. In any major criminal investigation the theme is “follow the money”. This means, follow the money and you will find the perpetrator of the crime. The majick is in the money and the money takes the land. Ironically, money does not exist. Money is not worth the paper it is written on because the only valid system of exchange is provided in Scripture, and that system is known as the silver coin, or gold coin, or “Shekel”. Leading into the second part of chapter 13 of Magna Carta 1215 this was known as “maerra”.

I have undertaken the writing of this book for the purpose of enlightening the reader on the facts surrounding the establishment of Canada and the ramifications of calling one self a “Canadian”. We hear all too often about the misgivings of the political party in office and even more so wonder why the politicians usually get away with certain illegal acts if, perpetrated by you or me, would precipitate serious criminal charges. Since what you are about to read involves convoluted legal procedures and slights of hand by the Politicians, who, strangely, are mostly lawyers, mixed in with a little history and Scripture, I have endeavoured to write this book in the simplest terms possible in order for the average man or woman to best understand what has been, and is still, going on. Nonetheless, I believe the average man or woman may find this work a little complex as well as somewhat detailed.

Rather than just make reference to the documents I relied upon in researching this book I have taken the initiative to include as much of my research material on compact disc as well an instructional video on how and where to conduct legal-historical research, which would be available. In regard to the video, I have chosen to centre my instructional video on the Income War Tax Act of 1917, which expired during the 1920 session, and the so-called Income Tax Act the Ottawa authority is currently using against the people in what I claim is one of the weapons being used against the people in a centuries-old undeclared act of commercial warfare or, the second of five platforms in destroying a people, heavy taxation. The video would be available on the speaking tour as it must be properly explained.

NEW WORLD ORDER Old World Concentration

You see, certain individuals claim ownership of the land, Turtle Island. We have outlived our usefulness and the powers-that-be has no interest in keeping unproductive people hanging around. To “them” our purposes were solely based upon the rape, loot and pillage of the natural riches of the land by using “human” resources. Let us not forget the genocide essential to the grand plan of the one-world-government. All the resources have been mapped. There is a surplus of people needed to work as slaves therefore, the “powers-that-be” are “depopulating” the planet using war, drug induced disease, Goebbese media manipulation and the most reliable method, by laying siege.

When world economies finally collapse the cities become useless for the main purpose of cities is for the recording of commercial activities. Without commerce the major cities will be laid to waste. This could be done as simply as calling a “red alert”. On a “red alert”, nothing and no one moves. If “they” maintain a red alert for several weeks it could get quite desperate within the large cities. If a red alert were to be ordered, during the fall harvest, the only movement of the crops would be to the “safe storage” facilities that have been going up across the prairies over the past generation. Those facilities I call “concrete bunkers” and may be an improvement of what Stalin accomplished with the induced wheat famine of 1930. 65 million Ukrainians and Russians were starved to death.

When did Canada become a country? Was it in 1763 the time of the Royal Proclamation? Was it during the formation of the Province of Canada in 1862? Was it at the time of the so-called “British North America Act” in 1867? In 1875 when the railway debt was paid off using Indian Royalties? In 1927 when the British High Commissioner appeared on the scene? Could it have been in 1931 with the Statute of Westminster? In 1933, as a result of Canada attending the Montevideo Conference? In 1947, when MacKenzie King gave the prime minister authority to appoint the governor general, who appoints the prime minister? In 1952, when Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent used force to instill his Indian Act on the rest of the Indian Nations? In 1965, when Elizabeth Windsor gave the Dominion of Canada a new corporate flag, the leaf in exchange for the red British ensign and a new corporate name “Canada” replacing the Dominion of Canada? In 1982, when Elizabeth Windsor committed criminal trespass in coming here to give “Canadians” Catholicism and certain rights and freedoms, something Canadians never, ever had before, and found within her so generous Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms? Or has Canada yet to become a sovereign nation at some other point yet to be ascertained, perhaps when Canadians surrender their Charter as the Hudson’s Bay Company supposed surrendered in 1870? At that point, would Canadians be inclined to surrender their Charter, just as the Hudson’s Bay Company allegedly did in 1870, in order to achieve “sovereignty”? What would Canadians have to look forward to when they surrender the rights and privileges given to them by Elizabeth Windsor? Are we really a product of a corporation or are we of a Tribe we can read of in Scripture? Or are we a mix of sundry Tribes of Scripture living a hodge-podge existence on the same land?

Pierre Trudeau had posed the question; “what does it mean to be Canadian?” He also called Canadians “obtuse voters”. What does it mean to be Canadian? Are Canadians really “obtuse voters”? Does the act of being Canadian make one an “obtuse voter” or is it upon becoming an “obtuse voter” that makes one a Canadian? Does “voting” render one an “obtuse voter”?

What is Canada? Is Canada a country and if so, when did it become a country? What is a country? If Canada is not a country then what is it? What are the ramifications of being a Canadian? What was the land called before it became Canada? What did Brian Mulroney mean when he admitted the Government of Canada employ thieves to steal Indian Land?

For those of you who have an interest in politics you may find this work helpful in guiding you to better identify what is going on around you and to better understand some of the legal variables which may have come into play, in your life, causing you to sit up and take notice. Before one considers the politics (poly ticks-many blood suckers) of society and the Law of the Land one must explore the history of the land wherein he or she lives. One of the best ways to understand the history of the land is to research the laws of the land. As well, it is necessary to understand how the system of governance works in a “free and democratic” society, and before setting on such a journey, you must ascertain exactly what type of “democracy” applies in your particular situation. Speaking in general terms, is a “free and democratic” society really free? Has democracy ever improved the plight of the people? People tend to assume too much, just like me. The people assume “democracy” means one thing but, when held to closer scrutiny under the various other “democracies”, people come to better understand why the “democracy” they think they are participating in, through their “vote”, is not one and the same. There are more than 10 forms of “democracy”. Canada is 143 years old. Can you name me one significant thing any government, since 1867, has ever done for the benefit of the people?

If all you can think of is “healthcare” then it is time to assess healthcare to determine what the actual benefit of government controlled healthcare really is, bearing in mind, one receives nothing for free, especially from any Government.

In order to illustrate how government works, or how it ought to work, I have undertaken to show how laws come to pass and I have dissected the Income War Tax Act 1917, the Income Tax Act 1948 as “amended”, and a fair portion the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 1982 chapter 11 U. K. I will explain how the parliament of Canada came about and how laws are enacted. The Senate Debates of 1917 clearly describe the procedure in the passing of money bills into law. I can show you what law and research libraries are all about, the research material they hold and where to find a law library. Those libraries are opened to the people and very few, at this point, are restricted to members of a Law (secret) Society only. It is surprising to find law libraries are open to the people as the Law Societies and the authorities of the Provincial governing structures are engaged in a conspiracy to create a monopoly on the law therefore one would think the people would be restricted from such libraries. The Ontario Legislature Library is restricted to politicians and lawyers only. It could be said the Law (secret) Society of Upper Canada is engaged in racketeering however, the lawyers may, in fact, be serving a secret, foreign entity we have no knowledge of therefore engagement in activities detrimental to our well being could lead to suspicions of grievous criminal allegations. But, the lawyers “own” the legal system and are engaged in racketeering. However, it has been my experience with the depth of the prevailing injustice it is probably wiser to try to withdraw from their “system” as best you can rather than continue to participate in it or challenge it.

We have been told Canada is a country...it is the greatest country in the world to live. The fact of the matter is Canada is a country and being a country means it is a corporation, not a nation, not of a Tribal lineage, and the reason it is claimed to be the best country in the world to live is it is a good corporate citizen paying off “its” debts diligently. Because Canada is a corporation, problems insofar as jurisdictional and law-and-order issues arise. If Canada is a country we must find out the ramifications of being part of it. The power to enact legislation, to pass laws, is found with “ownership” to the land. In one sense, if Canada was a corporation then the owners would be able to enact any laws the board of directors of that particular firm wish to enact. This is called “private law”. The Bank of England have their own private law and, it is the only entity I have found to be above the law, next to POPE. Interestingly enough, the Bank of England, in all likelihood, is a PAPAL or VATICAN instrument.

As you will find, Canada owns no land. In fact, the land belongs to the Creator and those born on the land, especially the Indians, have been given the land as their birthright. The land was created by the Creator and in agreeing to “countryhood” empowers others to create artificial authority to enact laws which in turn gives the impression of “assumpsit” ownership of the land as well turning you into something created by Caesar and not by the Creator.

Therefore, in order for the legislators to obtain jurisdiction over you they must contract with you and this, allegedly, is obtained through documents unlawfully offered by the various governing structures. Some of those documents include “birth certificate” and the “social insurance number” (the legal definition of “insurance” is “contract”). In reality it is a “social contract”. This type of contract cannot pass a Statutes of Frauds test. There are also the; marriage license, driver's license, library card and any other legal documents generated by the state which you ask for. However, I contend "they" have no jurisdiction whatsoever to issue such instruments. But, who ever prints the "money" gets to dictate the law. Insofar as "license" is concerned not many people are aware there are two legal definitions of "license". A license can be permission to do what is otherwise illegal such as what medical doctors require and a license can be a restriction on trade and commerce and commerce such as a hunting or driver's for hire license. The trap is sprung when we ask for such documentation. At that point, the state assumes jurisdiction over us. This is called "assumit" contract or assumed contract. The very fact the so-called government issues pseudo contracts suggests their sovereignty over the land is questionable otherwise there would be bona fide contracts. Also, since we are dealing with questionable banking practices what the law and history are about is the smoke and mirrors set in place to hide the facts of what is really going on, the trading of land for worthless paper. You must ask yourself; "when did Canada, or any of the several Provinces, gain ownership to the land in order to set up shop to create such documentation through legislation?". Have you considered where the "Original People" or "Indians" fit and what role they play in the "schemes" of those officials you voted in?

The word "Indian" comes from the phrase: "Los In Dios" or "those without the Christian soul". It is a slang expression not unlike "Chink" or "Nigger" or "Spic". Therefore, for reasons of expediency and out of usage I shall continue to refer to the Original people, as opposed to the ab-Original people, as "Indian" or "Indians" who are unrelated to enfranchised Indians. Enfranchised Indians would include; Ab-Original, First Nations, Métis, Status, Treaty and other corporations created by "your" politicians.

"Anishinabe" means "People". The names of the various Nations and Tribes of Indians all mean "People" in the specific dialect, i. e., Salteaux means "People". Mohawk, in that dialect means "People". Cheyenne, in that dialect means "People". And so on.

Throughout the book you will note references to statutes, or laws. For example, S. C. 1937, ch. 22 means; Statutes of Canada for 1937 and chapter 22 of the Statutes of Canada of the year 1937. Similarly, R. S. C., 1927, ch. 22 would mean Revised Statutes of Canada, 1927 chapter 22. One of the first steps needed in order to conduct research is how to read and find statutes and revised statutes.

By reading this book you may come to your own conclusions that could stand as reasons why Pierre Trudeau would call Canadians "obtuse voters". Canada is a colony. Canada is alleged to be a constitutional monarchy and if it is, one must first ascertain what the word "constitution" really means.

NEW WORLD ORDER Old World Concentration

When did the people in Canada, or England for that matter, ever implement a constitution? It is a constitutional monarchy, by expression, as there can be only one Queen and Elizabeth Windsor is the Queen of Judah in contract with the Imperial Parliament through the “Civil List”. The Canadian laws have its roots in the statute (canon) laws of POPE who is using Great Britain as a diversion because of certain “arrangements” between the Imperial Parliament, the Indians, the Hudson’s Bay Company and other Nations or so we are told.

The constitution of Great Britain is not a constitution rather, it is the compilation of the Roman-POPE Civil-canon law, the written statute laws, commencing in 1215 with Magna Charta. One of the features of Magna Carta is confirmation of the laws of Ine, Alfred the Great and other leaders of that Island from about the year 600 positive from year zero. One of the documents included in the compact disc is a set of English laws from 1215 up to the Canadian’s Charter of Rights and Freedoms 1982 for the convenience of the reader. Incidentally, ch. 13 of Magna Carta 1215 contains two sets of laws. One set are the complex “canon-commercial law” of VATICAN, through the inner City of London, while the other set, as best can be expected, contain the Laws of the Creator. One set is commercial, slanted in favour of POPE while the other related to the common usages and customs which was based on the Laws of the Creator. The later Laws were eaten up through the VATICANS’s involvement with King John, in 1213 and the 25 Barons sent to pass the Laws handed to Moses on Sapphire Tables into the jurisdiction of the King, who was already owned by POPE.

Knowing the power of the Laws of the Creator certain Tribes, through the PAPACY, had the corporation INNOCENT III “convince” King John into signing the 1213 “agreement” then proceeded to employ the services of 25 Barons to concentrate the Creator’s Laws into PAPAL control. This is purported to have had the effect of negating the second half of chapter 13 Magna Carta 1215 altogether. Unfortunately, it was through the concentration of the Laws of England, leading to the Norman Conquest, which the people embraced and led to the one head of the people, the King. Accordingly, any change in those Laws given to Moses, would have to have been agreed to by all the people. This has not occurred. Yet. This would not be unlike repealing Trudeau’s personal, private agreement to the Lateran Pact (with the Devil) of 1969, the people were not asked if they were in agreement with what Trudeau wanted nor were the Original People asked if they wanted to be a part of this particular scheme.

Since the evident demise of the monarch in 1657 the subsequent monarchs, to date, could not have had authority to give Royal Assent to any Bill. This would account for why the British North America Bill died on the order table for want of Royal Authority or Assent. This could also be the reason John MacDonal opted for the Second Law in the Twenty-fifth year of the Reign of the Third Edward, King of Judah, to execute Louis Riel while the provisions of the Criminal's Code of Canada provided for life in prison, for high treason. The Ancient Law provided for execution by stoning.

As a further note, on the Laws of Alfred the Great, one of its main features was the doing away of the Cities of Refuge. The Cities of Refuge would contain the Ark of the Promise, not the Ark of the "Coven"-ant. The Ark of the Promise contained the Torah, the Laws and Promises of the Creator. With this out of the way, those who oppose the Creator could insidiously carry on with the Curse of Cana'an, Ba'al worship "our" elected officials are entrenched with. In exchange for the Torah, we get the King James Bible.

Canada is a colony and in a colony you have the Governor, holding rank of General, supposedly the representative of the reigning sovereign, in this case the second Elizabeth, Queen of Judah. Elizabeth Windsor, a front for divers corporate entities, and supposedly carrying on business as Queen Elizabeth the Second, gives what is known as "Royal Assent" to laws in "England" and her alleged counterpart in Canada, the Governor-General, who carries on the same business of assenting to laws created by the parliament in Ottawa. The Governor-General once obtained Royal Instructions from the reigning King or Queen through the Secretary of State, U. K., then met with the monarch to receive his instructions. Since the Byng-King affair of 1926 the role and function of the Governor-General changed. In 1927 the British High Commissioner was appointed and in 1931 R. B. Bennett signed the commission for the Governor-General and not the eighth Edward, King of Judah. By this, the Governor-General effectively became the property of the prime minister ⇔ priest, which could, in part, explain the role, and function of the British High Commissioner. I have taken the liberty to include a copy of a "questions and answers" session conducted sometime in the 1940's between R. Rogers Smith and George Barr, King's Council. When you read the document you will find George Barr and R. Rogers Smith have somewhat summed up the position of Governor-General and the British High Commissioner and have given a fairly detailed account of the history of British North America. It is interesting to note R. Rogers Smith and George Barr, although fairly accurate in their questions and answers, fail to include the Indians, or, it could be they believed the Indians were all "citizens of Canada" therefore, the Indians were, like Canadians, having just a wonderful time enjoying the franchise. However, with Barr being a lawyer, one can never be certain where the truth lies. Once you have considered the facts, and the thoughts of R. Rogers Smith, you will more than likely come to the realization everything concerning government is fictitious, reliant upon the ignorance of the people in order to maintain an illusion the state has some sort of bona fide authority justifying the plundering the nations' wealth under the pretext of law. As Frank Baum suggested in his occult book The Wizard of Oz ... we have no brains, no heart and are too shy to stand up to the wizard while those not loyal to the Indians or the people of Turtle Island build a yellow brick road for some unknown entity of a foreign land. I see the Queen as the smoke and mirrors, running a dog and pony show while the decrepit man behind the curtain is POPE.

We all have been told we ought to vote in order to participate in the affairs of the country, to exercise our “franchise”. We are constantly reminded to participate in elections by various levels of governing structures we live under by our teachers from the schools we attended and let us not forget the media. What does it mean to vote? What are the implications of voting? Who are you voting for? What do you think you are voting for?

Whose interests are those duly elected really representing? These are all questions requiring consideration before you enter into the scheme of the “democracy” game, before you partake in your own personal “enjoyment of the franchise” and certainly when you apply for any government generated documents or “money”.

When one hears the word “franchise” it conjures up ideas of owning a coffee and doughnut shop or fast food business, car dealership or any other chain of businesses one can buy into. When looking at the word from a legal or political point of view, as it applies to the people, “franchise” has totally different implications. Franchise in its legal sense is associated with voting, suffrage, and speaking in general terms, the removal of all the rights, freedoms and grants the Creator has given to us all in substitution of the limited and lien able rights and freedoms POPE, through Elizabeth Windsor, feels you ought to have. In order to understand what “democracy” is all about, and I do not profess to have all the answers concerning this topic, one must look at the weasel words the politicians flaunt to induce the people into participating in the voting process. In order to understand what voting is, and the ramifications of voting, one needs to understand precisely what voting is all about and to help you better understand this you might want to find out exactly what certain words mean in relation to voting. I have included some useful definitions in a latter chapter.

The basic objective of this publication is to keep as simple as possible the facts surrounding the creating of Canada as a country and although I have included supportive documentation I chose not to inundate this edition with more proof as it may burden the reader. My calling is an attempt to expose the so-called governments for what they really are. They are corporate employees and not our servants as we have been misled into believing. Those front men, whether they know it or not and whether they like it or not, are engaged in genocide. The British are notorious for wars and genocide and one only has to look at the fruits of its colonial expansion experiment all under the false pretext of debt.

One could liken the government as a sports team with the prime minister ⇔ priest the captain of the team, the ministers ⇔ clergy appear as different players on the team, the Governor-General is the coach and the Parliament of Great Britain the owners of the franchise called “Team Canada”. The people of Canada are the spectators or fans and they get to root for their favorite team at voting time. Voting could be considered as a sports draft and depending on how the team faired since the championship, or vote, they could be reelected as a team once the contract comes up for renewal. If the franchise didn’t perform to the fans expectations the franchise is folded and the fans are allowed to select a new Team Canada. This is called voting. I believe if there is to be voting it ought to be done once in the life of the leader not unlike the succession of the King or Queen. When we vote in the politician, especially a majority government, we become subject to a dictatorship. With a minority government nothing really is accomplished other than mud slinging and a show for the people.

I have chosen only to provide the reader with explanations based on what I have found through my research. I am merely presenting the facts as found in the various journals of the legislative bodies, other sources and from other people’s knowledge, revealing to the reader the fruits of the combined efforts. By reading this book it is hoped you may find for yourself what Canada is all about and why it is not good to claim “I AM. CANADIAN”. It is also hoped you will discover you are neither an “obtuse voter” nor “Canadian”. You are what could be colloquially referred to as a “Turtle Islander” ... one who is born on Turtle Island and who is not an Indian, a subject of the Queen or a slave. Better yet, it is hoped you will find your true Tribal identity as everyone has one. The laws applicable to you would be the Law of the Land, Indian Law and that Law is found in the Laws of the Creator. Let us not forget the Laws of the Creator Elizabeth Windsor heads.

It really does not matter what the laws say as it really comes down to money. The law is made to confuse the people and the court procedure is a creation of, by and for the money masters utilizing their law profession in an attempt to shut out the common people from conducting their own legal affairs. The courts operate under private commercial law in protection of the creditors, so-called. We are in the “red” while the legal profession is in the “black”, as representing the creditor’s interests perhaps?

Based on what you are about to read the root problem of all the worlds woes stem from questionable banking and borrowing practices by both the Fleet Street concerns and all those you willfully chose to give permission through the franchise by way of the scheme of totalitarianism, democracy and through the vote.

For those of you who insist to equate “religion” with Scripture, I would like to give a theory, which is currently being promoted, and it concerns the event of creation. We must concede the Bible was messed with in a huge way with the advent of the Council of Nicea when POPE and the narcotics of the people were invented.

The Story;

NEW WORLD ORDER Old World Concentration

There was a time when there was but one, Omnipotent Being. The Name of the Being is thought to be “Yahuah”. I would like to dissect the word “Jehovah” in order to provide a clearer understanding. “J” is a relatively recent invention and has substituted “Y”. So, if we substitute “Jehovah” for “Yehovah” and we know the Romans used the “V” as a “U” therefore, if we substitute “Jehovah” for “Yehouah” it becomes clear on the Name. As I understand it Yahuah is NOT our Creator, rather, Yahuah’s Son created all we see. His Son’s Name is not readily known but it would be safe to say He is Yahuah’s son, perhaps “YahuahSon” (?), or slight variations thereof but the Name of the Son is certainly not Zeus, alias “Jesus”. If the Masai Yah’s Name was “Jesus” it is highly unlikely the “system” would permit this to be known to the masses. So, what you have is the Son as our Heavenly Father and Yahuah as our Heavenly Grandfather or Grandomnipotent. The way to the Father, the Son’s Father, is through the Son. When one prays to Jehovah, or Yahuah, their prayers go unheard. Each religion has a stumbling block for the people to trip over in their quest to find the Mighty One.

In any event, Yahuah went about creating the Angels, out of nothing, which has been equated with “majick”. Satan was Yahuah’s right hand Angel. All the Angles knew how to make majick but there came another time when Yahuah created a Being, a Son, out of Yahuah’s self. None of the Angles were privy to this form of majick and they started getting a little curious. By and by, the Son went about creating everything we see, and yet to see, as well as man and woman. Things started to heat up in Heaven to the extent there was a rebellion. Satan had to play second fiddle to the Son, now known as the Creator, and Satan did not like that one bit. This led to 1/3 of the Angles being expelled from Heaven or they left Heaven.

If we look at 1/3 as a whole number percentage we arrive at 33% or, Masonically speaking, 33rd., Degree. I have read some articles in regard to the Freemasons. A couple of sources indicate when an initiate falls to the 33rd., Degree he is allowed to summons the “seething power of Lucifer” who appears as the “light”, sparks, bright lights and colours not unlike fireworks without the “bang”.

What we have here is retribution by Satan against Yahuah for keeping secret the “special” majick private so much so Satan is doing the same thing with the law profession, the Freemasons, POPE and others. As history has shown Satan and the fallen Angels have been hard at work trying to destroy everything about the Creator. Satan even went so far as to have the Creator murdered and when this came to pass all Heaven fell silent.

The usage of the “trinity doctrine” is founded upon Satan’s desire to be a “part of the Team”. There is the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost? No, there is the Omnipotent, the Son and the spirit of the Son who is found in all life. Satan will stop at nothing to achieve the end of getting back in favour with Yahuah and, in the process, Satan is out to prove to Yahuah His Son, our Creator, is no good and useless for Satan is able to destroy what the Creator has made. Satan figures there will come a time when he can stand up and say; “Look Yahuah, Your Son’s creation, man, has given over His creations to me for worthless paper, for nothing and all based on illusion”. The Art of War by Sun Tzu is what has been going on for a few thousand years. There is and has been an economic war on going since time immemorial and this war is all based on a grand illusion. There are those who do not believe in Satan, Lucifer, etc. rather, it is the evil within people which is the devil.
